Some brewing companies are 'born out of a garage'.
 Some brewing companies are 'formed by a group of mates having a beer'.
 Not many are started as a result of a near fatal snake bite.

Started in 2015 by Joel and John Drysdale, Venom has grown to be one of Victoria's favourite cult brewers. With six core range beers, and an interesting stable of limited releases,
 Venom Brewing offers quality, well priced beers to suit any venue.

BRUNY ISLAND

B E E R C O .

Bruny Island, in Tasmania's south, is a place famed for fine produce celebrating the region's natural bounty. Among those who have helped build its reputation is Nick Haddow, the founder of Bruny Island Cheese and Bruny Island Beer Co.

Locally grown ingredients and an eye towards Tasmania's seasons and sensibilities are what guides our beers down an unconventional path.

Much like our cheese, our beer is an artisanal product that strives to be the best expression of the seasonally variable ingredients available in our region.

Bendigo Brewing is all about blending tradition with creativity – crafting modern beers inspired by time-honoured techniques and local flavour.

We brew with predominantly local and organic ingredients and champion slow, hands-on methods – including fermenting most of our beers with a unique house yeast.

The result? Traditionally inspired beers that reflect the spirit of Bendigo, right down to the names and stories behind each one. Since opening our Farmer Lane taproom in November 2024, we've been serving fresh beer and wood fired pizza in a space that's quickly become a local favourite.

Ils and Undies were two crafty homebrewers well and truly over their 9-5 office jobs.

Its had a cunning plan; create bangin' beer to drink at a place where the vibes are good. As far as plans go, not so cunning. But it was a good plan.

The idea sparked excitement like that first glimpse of warm weather when you ditch your old trackies and don your favourite boardies – that kind of excitement. And when they got Brownie on board to handle the hospo, Margaret River Brewhouse was born.

Since its launch, the crew at the Brewery have honed their craft, creating some of WA's best beer for any season. To locals and visitors, Margaret River Brewhouse has become that place to enjoy good beer, good food and good vibes.

Brewhouse and the beer they serve is more popular than ever. So much so that the crafty mates and their hospitable friend have launched the Margaret River Beer Co. to a nation thirsty for a taste of Margs life. Today, the much-loved vibe of Brewhouse is delivered to backyards and barbies across WA by the can-full.

Like all good things, proudly made in Margs.

Over 100 years ago our Great Grandfather began distilling a traditional ouzo to accompany the chargrilled seafood being served at the family restaurant next door. His obsession for good food and even better aperitivo became embedded in our family culture.

Today we are proud to be handcrafting our spirits, aperitivo and cocktails using the knowledge passed down through 4 generations of craft distillers. We have modernised a few of the recipes but the spirit of our Great Grandfather lives on in the attention we give to every bottle and our passion for a better drinking experience.

Three Foxes is the birth right of two mates - Sarkis, an engineer and fourth generation distiller who likes getting behind the decks whenever he can, and Alec, a Melbourne creative with a serious passion for the 80s.

After years of soaking up the knowledge and experience within our family business, we started dreaming up our next moves.

Expanding our distillery offering from a traditional ouzo and vodka to include a line of aperitivo and bottled cocktails for the modern palette has been a total passion project.

We are proud to be carrying on with the traditions laid out by our Great Grandfather and excited to raise the bar of drinking culture in Australia.

Our expansion called for some new digs! The Three Foxes distillery in Heidelberg is a place for all the things we love, from our shag carpet and classic world cup memorabilia, to the glassware from our grandmother's kitchen. There's always a killer tune playing over the sound system and laughs being shared in the bottling room.

Oh yeah, and a giant disco ball spins over the distillery floor, making the custom built pot still shine like the queen she is.

Rogue Draught

4.2 % ABV

Taste a life less ordinary with the Rogue. Our tribute to those who never settle for safe harbours. Because calm seas never made a skilled sailor. And a bit of mischief makes for better stories. A lighter style of hybrid beer in the lager/pale ale style. Aromas of lime, dried fruit and hints of herbal notes. A light to medium residual bitterness with a light body and bready malt undertones.
